

Ayke Agus' Musical Concert at Padma Resort Legian & Padma Resort Ubud

Legian, Bali – As a form of appreciation for the arts, Padma Hotels has been committed to act on it by introducing the culture of music in its properties. Following to its success in their Musical Concert pilot with Japanese pianist, Toru Oyama, continued with the second event featuring Indonesian pianist – violist duet, Michelle Siswanto and Elwin Hendrijanto, and a Guitar Recital by Jubing Kristianto last October.

Proudly presenting Dr. Ayke Agus; an Indonesian native of Chinese, Dutch and Javanese ancestry, who is considered as a wunderkind when she began her concert career at the age of 7 as pianist and violinist. Known for her long time association with the greatest violinist of the 20th century, Jascha Heifetz, and their significant collaboration on the completion of his published transcriptions for violin and piano; Dr. Ayke also gained Master Degree from USC and a Doctorate Degree from Buffalo Daemen College and now sharing her lifetime experience to the worldwide students.

Playing Beethoven, Rachmaninoff, Chopin, Dinicu, Gershwin, DeFalla, Schubert and et cetera, her solo musical concert will be held two times in different properties. The first one will take place at the Plumeria Grand Ballroom at Padma Resort Legian on November 19th, 2015; and followed by on November 21st at the newly-opened Padma Resort Ubud. Ticket is sold at price IDR 200,000nett/person inclusive of canapés, wine and soft drinks.
