PRESS RELEASE

Padma Resort Legian and Padma Resort Ubud, The Family Friendly Resort

Bali, May 2017 – There are no time better to spend with your family than on an exciting getaway to Padma Resort Legian or a tranquil vacation to Padma Resort Ubud.

“Many of our guests seek for a tranquil place to rest and relax when spending their holidays in Bali but at the same time, they do not want to stay in an isolated location where limits their chances to explore what the island offers,” says Tjipjanto Soerjanto, Padma Hotels’ Director of Operations.

In early 2015, Padma Resort Legian announced its newly launched Family Block as one of the resort’s commitments to enhance the stay experience of our family guests. Widely known as family hotel and recognized by TripAdvisor as number one hotel for family in Indonesia and top 25 in the world in 2014, Padma Resort Legian’s family block is superbly designed for comfort with a unique artistic twist. Not just like any other family rooms, the resort went full-blown in responding to the guests’ requests where our 64sqm room is facilitated with one master bedroom, one children room with bunk bed, two bathrooms and a spacious private balcony. The family block was built with an enormous 40 meters long and 45 centimeters deep for kid’s swimming pool with three water slides, juice bar, gelato stand and kids club with a numerous games and activities like air hockey table, PS4 and Wii.

While Padma Resort Ubud understands that when children are happy on holiday, only then do parents have the luxury to enjoy a relaxing family gathering. The resort’s family-friendly Kid’s Club is a haven of delight for wee ones on up to 12-years-old, offering dynamic activities, engaging toys, separate rooms for watching movies & gaming, and a whimsically designed bunk bed room for naps. An inviting Children’s Swimming Pool is designated exclusively for families.

Located on the top floor overlooking the resort’s expansive infinity swimming pool and gardens, and boasting panoramic 180-degree views across the bamboo forest and out to the terraced rice paddies beyond, the spacious indoor and al fresco The Puhu Restaurant & Lounge showcases an international menu of tantalizing dishes including Indonesian, Asian and European specialties. The intimate air-conditioned library offers a tranquil place to indulge in afternoon tea or to socialize over a fine wine from the glass front cellar.
