PRESS RELEASE

The Puhu Restaurant & Lounge Offers Relaxed Fine Dining Overlooking the Enchanting Bamboo Forest of Payangan in Ubud

Ubud, Bali – The new 149-room Padma Resort Ubud offers guests a rare opportunity to soak in the magical views of one of Bali’s most pristine river valleys, whilst dining on unparalleled cuisine at The Puhu Restaurant & Lounge.

Ensnconced within an untouched river valley overlooking the enchanting bamboo forests of Payangan in Ubud, located north of Bali’s celebrated cultural centre, The Puhu Restaurant & Lounge is destined to become a fixture on Ubud’s exciting culinary scene.

Located on the top floor overlooking the resort’s expansive infinity swimming pool and gardens, and boasting panoramic 180-degree views overlooking the terraced rice paddies beyond, the spacious indoor and al fresco The Puhu Restaurant& Lounge showcases an international menu of tantalizing dishes including Indonesian, Asian and European specialties. The intimate air-conditioned library offers a tranquil place to indulge in afternoon tea or to socialize over a fine wine from the glass front cellar.

The culinary team is on hand to customize corporate events and wedding celebrations, whether guests choose to dine within the restaurant’s contemporary interiors, outdoors on the expansive terrace or within the welcoming library with its dramatic glass front cellar. Catering options are available throughout the resort’s venues including the boardrooms and ballroom. The Puhu Restaurant & Lounge provides a breath-taking backdrop to private parties including exclusive wedding receptions. The Executive Chef is available to design a custom menu for elegant champagne toasts, glamorous cocktail style receptions and sophisticated wine pairing dinners. The Puhu Restaurant & Lounge elevates the status of in-room dining with a sumptuous menu to please even the most discerning palate.
